617 Office note dated 1st August 1952 regarding the incurring of an expenditure of Rs.1500/- in connection with the unveiling of the Gandhi Memorial Stupa by His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore on 8-9-1952, the rough details of the expenditure being as follows:

Pendal and other arrangements	Rs.500/-
Purchase of casket	Rs.750/-
Printing of invitations and other unforeseen expenditure	Rs.250/-
Total	Rs.1500/-

The note having been circulated among the members of the Council, Sri P.Githaramiah has observed that the donor might be anxious to present the casket to His Highness the Maharaja if a suggestion is made to him and that the expenditure proposed may however be provided for as per note of the President. Sri U.L. Ramachandra Rao has concurred with the views of Sri P.Githaramiah. 16 other members have signified approval of the proposal contained in the note.

Sri A.Venkateshiah has observed that the donor might be consulted and asked to meet the expenditure or such expenses as may be required. Sri B.V.Ramakrishnaiya has observed that the donor might be consulted and necessary expenditure met. Sri P.Subbanna and Sri M.R.Srinivasa Iyengar concur with the opinions furnished by Sri A.Venkateshiah and Sri B.K.Ramakrishnaiya respectively. Seven members were either not available or absent from the station when the papers were taken to them.

It is therefore resolved that an expenditure of Rs.1500/- as proposed be incurred in connection with the unveiling of the Gandhi Memorial Stupa in the Gandhi Square by H's Highness the Maharaja of Mysore on 8-9-1952.
